THE CONSTITUTION

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO. | ATLANTA, GEORGIA, THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1869. | VOLUME II.—NUMBER 25

EVENING EDITION.

☞ A loan of 2,000,000 francs has been negotiated in Trieste, to build the Trans-oceanic Railway, in Honduras. Work has not yet commenced.

THE CHINESE.—The Baltimore Gazette thinks this Chinese labor question must result in more antagonism between the North and South. The Pig-tail will swarm over the whole country to build railroads. The North, already overstocked with laborers, will not want the Chinese to settle there. The South will, to cultivate her wastes. Competition will drive them from the North; the lack of it, invite them South. And wherever there is a difference between the North and South, which affects the Northern pocket, it must finally grow into an "irrepressible conflict."

The Most Important Decision Yet.

In our report of the Supreme Court decisions will be found one ruling that we are disposed to regard as the most important practical dictum that this tribunal has made this session.

In the case of Nathan Chapman against Warren Akin, from Bartow county, the momentous principle is established that the 3525th section of the Code, which prescribes four years as the time in which exceptions can be levied on transferred real estate, applies to the time covered by the war, and that said section does not fall under the statutes of limitation.

The effect of it is to relieve hundreds of thousands of acres of land from danger of sale at the Sheriff's hands—to kill hundreds of executions that, but for this, would be collectible, and to strike another heavy blow in the direction of relief.

We do not speak of the law of the matter. As a legal question, we agree with Judge Warner, who dissents from the majority of the Court.

In some cases, it will work miserable wrong and hardships—in others, it will secure undeniable justice.

Many lands have passed through various owners, all the time covered with the lien of some old unknown judgment, and finally some innocent purchaser who has paid full value is pounced upon and bled heavily to save his acres from going to the block. Not a section in Georgia but where such hard luck has occurred. And the loss of papers and records during the war has rendered it impossible to guard against such contingencies.

Thousands of cases of this kind will be settled as they should be—the honest buyer will hold his land, and the judgment owner, who has stood by and seen men rush into the trap without a word of notice, will lose his lien, and probably his money.

But on the other hand it will do wrong, too. Many an owner of a just execution has held off his levy in mercy to his debtor, and now to lose his debt by his clemency, is certainly severe.

The truth is, that the whole Relief Law reminds us very much of the Confederate cavalry saddles that we used in the war days—they would hurt a horse any way they were put on. Relief cannot be enforced without wounding somewhere.

The result of this decision will be to unencumber many an oppressed debtor.

STATE CORRESPONDENCE.

CAMPBELLTON, GA., July 13, 1869.

Editor Constitution: As you have no regular correspondent from this place, I will drop you an occasional line when there is any news worthy of note stirring in or around old Campbellton.

This, you are probably aware, is by no means a pretty, but a quiet little village, situated on the Southwestern bank of the beautiful Chattahoochee.

This is the dullest season of the year. Persons of all professions seem to be at leisure. The farmers are about done making their crop, and their next labor will be to commence gathering. The merchants are doing but little in the "calico" line, and will be comparatively at a stand-still until the cotton crop is placed upon the market, and begins to bring money into the country. The first session of the school has closed, and for several weeks there will be vacation. Nothing doing in the law, as we will have no court until October. There are no improvements in progress, consequently we are destitute of mechanics. But little sickness, so the M. D.'s are idle.

As fishing is our most profitable amusement, I will relate to you the success of one of our best fishermen: Mr. B. Thomas, but a short time since caught, with a hook, a turtle, weighing 81¼ pounds, and another weighing 49—the two weighing 127¾ pounds. After the shell was taken off the largest one and the flesh ready for cooking there was something over 30 pounds of net meat, 9 pounds of which was taken from the head.

The corn crop looks well, but is also beginning to need some rain. Cotton is small and as a general thing, the crop is not very promising.

Politics have been slumbering with us since the days of Seymour and Grant; it will sleep on for a little while yet, to awaken in a new campaign, and when it does awaken, you may rest assured that it will awaken to the downfall of Radicalism, and the uprising of that party which is opposed to negro equality, and advocates the supremacy of the Anglo-Saxon race.

DALTON, GA., July 9.

Dear Colonel: The Dalton High School closed its semi-annual session this week. Owing to the want of a proper house, (our academy, you know, having been lately destroyed by fire,) the usual examination exercises were dispensed with much to the regret of the community. But the liberal-minded principal, Mr. Glenn, gave, last evening, at the court house, a delightful entertainment, to which the whole school (a very large one of nearly one hundred and fifty scholars,) and all their friends were invited.

During the day it was rumored, that one of Mr. Glenn's assistants, the accomplished Miss Mollie Denton, would, that evening, be married to our young legal friend, E. M. Tarver, Esq., at the Methodist Church, and that the bridal party would afterward grace the evening's entertainment with their presence. At an early hour in the evening the church was crowded to its utmost capacity, and at eight o'clock, a beautiful marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Duncan, by which the happy pair was made one.

The assembly, composed largely of children, then adjourned to the court house, and from then till the "wee small hours" commenced to dawn, the old building rang with the merry laughter and joyous shouts of the delighted children. It was emphatically a children's party, for though there was many of the "larger ones" present, all seemed bound to "act like children," and I imagine that they were again a child.

After we had romped until we were all exhausted, we were regaled with some most delightful music by a band of well-trained children, (and, with instrumental accompaniment,) by that most accomplished musician, Mrs. Manly, a finer than whom, not even your city can produce.

And then, oh! the nice things Mr. Glenn gave us to eat. There seemed to be an inexhaustible reservoir somewhere near from which a perfect deluge of confectionaries, fruits, cakes, etc., were showered down upon us. In the early part of the evening the bride and groom entered the rooms, and by their presence added much to the eclat and enjoyment of the evening. Truly we had a most delightful time.

After a month or two recreation, Mr. Glenn re-opens his school in the new academy which is being erected. It is one of the finest schools of the State, Mr. Glenn being a gentleman of most extended and profound education and of rare talents for success in his profession.

The wheat crop is not turning out altogether as well as expected, the grain being quite small. The price offered by some of that farmers are refusing to sell; so business is still quite dull. We are suffering considerably for rain; corn in some localities injuring, but not to much extent as yet. P.

Extract from the Alumni Essay, Read at Newnan, June 29th, by Miss Carrie Douglas, of Atlanta.

I remember once, when a very little girl, after having heard a long sermon, in which the word "duty" was frequently used, going to Webster for its definition. He gave several, and among them I remember this: "That which a person owes to another." I have often thought since, the true meaning is, That which we owe to ourselves. Let us be true to the promptings of our own hearts, live and act each present moment as though it were our all. For is it not all we can claim? The past we cannot recall; the future belongs to God.

Never unsex yourself for greatness. The worship of one true heart, is better than the admiration of the world. Do not trample on the flowers while longing for the stars. Live up to the full measure of life; give way to your impulses, loves and enthusiasms. Sing, laugh, labor and be happy.

EXTRACT FROM A POEM READ AT NEWNAN, JUNE 30, BY THE REV. E. P. BIRCH.

I may be wrong, and yet I can but deem
That woman's charms should be just what they seem,
And as all action they can be'or possess,
By hurtful modes and gaudy style of dress;
And others strive their lovely forms to mend,
By bath-room graces and the "Grecian Bend."

All would be beautiful, and all desire
To reach the goal to which their hopes aspire;
Some But their trust in flesh and gaudy dresses,
And some in braids and artificial tresses;
Some look to jewels rare their end to gain,
But all, in truth, have "jewels on the brain."

To these fair girls, my calm advice is this:
To spend your days in singleness of bliss,
Rather than grasp a false delusive treasure,
"Marry in haste and then repent at leisure."
I'd rather be the old maid's ban and scoff,
Or than be envied one I know not of;
I'd rather be an "old maid," proud and free,
With wasted love and withered heart, than be
A poor man's drudge, or bear a tyrant's rule,
Or fill a fiend-hard's home, or wear a fool.

Georgia News.

ATLANTA NEWS OF LAST WEEK.—It was hot as Nebuchadnezzar's furnace. It was dry as the Desert of Sahara. It was nearly as dull as Doc. Anderson's dead axe, except that a good deal of building was going on, and one or two little sermonettes came off between some of the young bucks of the city.

Uncle Billy Hill, the only old man in Atlanta, (he is near one hundred) is quite sick, and it is feared it is his last illness.

Gov. Bullock is still "that," and is engaged exclusively in the pardoning business.

Banker James and Mr. Thrasher are putting up a block of stores, which are to be the finest in the city, being five stories above ground.

Mr. Caldwell, late of Alabama, and Mr. Wilson, of Virginia, have taken an interest in the United States Hotel, and are imparting a new life and vigor to this popular establishment.

Kenny, the great ale man of the South, continues to monopolize the ale business.

Messrs. Redwine & Fox enjoy the reputation of occupying the most popular "corner" in town. Bradfield, a little higher up Whitehall, is still "regulating" matters and things with a rush.

Major Steele, seated on a chunk of ice, with another large chunk in his hat, was keeping cool to the best of his ability. Bard is still cracking stale second hand jokes at Bullock; and Col. Avery is busy with his flashing pen, grinding out heavy leaders for THE CONSTITUTION. Billy Hulsey was conducting the momentous affairs of the municipality with vast ability and cleverness.—Griffin Star.

A friend, just from Covington, passing through Butts, Henry and Newton, reports the crops universally good, just now needing rain—a portion of it badly. He reports that three-fourths of the land on the road, from Griffin to Covington, is planted in corn. We are glad to hear this.—Ibid.

The Grand Jury, of Richmond county, in their general presentments, reflect upon Governor Bullock for abusing the pardoning power.

The Augusta papers state that George Snowden, a colored Notary Public, has been appointed in Augusta.

TALK ABOUT SUEING.—We heard a leading lawyer say, the other day, that certain parties, names not given, had been to him to enter suit against the city for damages to their property by the recent rains and want of rain.—Columbus Sun.

At the Commencement of the Wesleyan Female College, on Monday, Miss Alice Baxter, of Cartersville, Ga., read a creditable composition, entitled "A Meditation on a Pudding."

TOO HASTY.—The Savannah Republican commenting upon the Governor's pardon of Henry Miller, says: "Upon the appearance of this official document, a warrant charging Allen Williams, the colored witness mentioned in the proclamation of Governor Bullock, with the offense of false swearing in making the affidavit therein recited, was issued by Justice Marsh, upon which he was arrested and committed to jail in default of bail for his appearance for trial at the next term of the Superior Court. After his arrest and before he went to the jail, he made the following affidavit of his own free will and accord:

State of Georgia, Chatham County.—Before me, Isaac M. Marsh, Notary Public and ex-officio Justice of the Peace for said State and county, personally came and appeared Allen Williams, a person of color, of said county, who, being duly sworn, deposeth and says: Whereas, an affidavit has appeared in public print, as a part of an official document from his Excellency Rufus B. Bullock, Governor of the State of Georgia, to the principal keeper of the Penitentiary, which affidavit purports to be the voluntary affidavit of myself, made without advisement or communication with any other person. I hereby declare said affidavit false in many particulars, as I was asked by Mr. Richard Wayne Russell on several occasions, to come to his office, as he wished to see me, but I did not go; on the day the affidavit was made, I was sitting in Justice Jones' office; Mr. Richard Wayne Russell came to the steps of the office and told me to come to his office that day at four o'clock; I went to the office before four o'clock with Mr. Russell; when in the office, Mr. Russell asked me to tell him the truth about whether Mr. Wray threatened to starve me, or threatened to send me to the Penitentiary; I told him I would; he asked me if Mr. Wray did not tell me what to swear in court; I told him, no; he asked me again, and I told him no; he then asked me if Mr. Wray did not threaten to send me to the Penitentiary; I told him no; I told him I had only missed one meal; Mr. Russell then spoke to a gentleman, I believe Mr. Robert J. Wade, and told him to write down as he would tell him; everything that was written down Mr. Russell dictated; after the paper was written, the gentleman then read it to me, and asked me if that was right; I told him it was not right about Mr. Wray starving me, [meaning I had missed one meal;] he then said it was all right, and told me to touch the pen; I then left the office; I did not know what the paper was I signed, nor did I know for what purpose it was to be used; the evidence I gave in the Superior Court was true.

Sworn to, and subscribed before me, this July 12, 1869. ISAAC MARSH,
Notary Public and ex-Officio Justice of the Peace, Chatham County, Ga.

The Republican further says, that Henry Miller is a notorious thief and burglar, who has spent two-thirds of his time in jail, since 1865, and is now under indictment for a Penitentiary offense.

AN EDITOR'S LETTER.

DR. J. M. FOSTER,

Office in Empire Block,

CURE OF CATARRH.

FROM D. W. RAY, ESQ.,

Associate Editor of the Jackson Citizen, formerly Editor of the Rochester [N. Y.] Democrat, late of the Editorial corps of the Advertiser and Tribune, of Detroit, Michigan.

SIR:—Your favor of recent date, making inquiries as to the effect of your treatment in my case, was duly received. In reply to your questions, I would say that I was seriously afflicted with an aggravated Catarrh for a number of years past, discharging a thick, offensive, disagreeable mucous from my head almost constantly. At night, or when lying down, it was most annoying. When lying upon my back the thick mucous would drop down my throat, causing labored breathing and great distress and uneasiness, which rendered my nights restless and fatiguing. My throat was soon implicated in the general disease, and subjected to long and alarming attacks of soreness, which lasted for months together, during each returning winter. My general health was very much impaired, and the depression of spirits consequent upon my failing strength, while the undermining of my former vigor of health, caused me serious apprehensions. I tried remedy after remedy, "Catarrh Cures," and "Catarrh Snuffs," without number, but all to no purpose. My suffering grew worse, with every succeeding winter, until I began to yield all hope of being relieved. At last, the fame of your skill and success in treating such disorders reached me, and, happily, I placed myself under your treatment.

With every sentiment that the deepest feelings of gratitude can inspire, I now frankly acknowledge my thanks for your successful treatment of my case. Indeed, the relief has surprised me, and in every way exceeded even my most sanguine hopes. Under your treatment, my suffering melted away as by a charm. My head is clear, my throat is well and natural, my general health sound and robust, my spirits buoyant, and in fact, Doctor, I was never better in my life. I must not forget to confess that you have had much to contend with, beside my disease alone, for my editorial duties made me, necessarily, neglect the regular attendance to the treatment that I felt it should receive, and yet, notwithstanding my negligence, your system of treatment has done for me what no medicine has heretofore done, and I cannot speak in terms of praise too high to recommend you to those who suffer from this most disgusting and loathsome disease.

While connected with the Rochester Democrat, I learned of many cures that you effected while there, in the winter of 1863-'64, I also know of many in this State, and can, consequently, speak of you thus fully from knowledge of other cases than my own.

In conclusion, let me say that should you desire to refer to me at any time, you may do so without hesitation, and I shall most cheerfully reply to any letters, deeming it a duty no less to yourself, than to those who are afflicted, and to whom I may be a guide in directing them to the same source from which I derived such substantial relief.

Hoping to hear of your continued success, I remain, sir, truly yours,

D. W. RAY.

From Wm. Peters, Esq., of Dayton, Ohio.

DR. FOSTER—Dear Sir.—Noticing the fact that your patients report to you by letter the progress of their cases, under your most admirable system of treatment for deafness and catarrh, allow me to add my name to your list of references, for benefits received. I had been seriously afflicted with chronic Catarrh above eight years—suffering the most intense headache, with confusion of memory, while my head was completely stopped up every morning, and my mouth filled with a most disagreeable taste. Beside all this, my appetite and bowels were irregular, and my general health much disturbed and debilitated. It was in this sad condition, I placed myself under your valuable treatment only four weeks ago, and now I rejoice to say that my bowels and appetite are regular; I can breathe freely through my head; my headache has disappeared; my memory is improved, while my general health is so far restored that I can scarcely realize my remarkable change for the better, nor too strongly advise those who suffer to apply to you at once. Truly yours,

WILLIAM PETERS.

THE CONSTITUTION

LARGEST CITY, COUNTY AND STATE CIRCULATION

A STANDING CHALLENGE

TO TEST THE MATTER OF

CIRCULATION IS UNACCEPTED.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA.....JULY 15.

☞ Our States are, one after another, attacking their old usury laws.

☞ Dry goods importations to New York the first six months of 1869, were $92,499,842; in 1868, $77,254,182.

☞ Appleton's Journal announces that the French Empress Eugenie, is to visit this country.

☞ The Marysville Republican, the only colored paper in Tennessee, has deserted Stokes, and come out for Senter.

☞ Sixty Swiss emigrants have arrived at Goldsboro, N. C., brought over by the Immigration Agency.

☞ Reports of the revival of the National Intelligencer, have been rife, but the last rumor is, that the press is advertised for sale to satisfy rent.

☞ The grand jury, of New York, are looking into the charge of usury against prominent Wall street brokers. There will probably be some indictments.

☞ It is now said that Grant does not consider any additional legislation necessary for Virginia, and that he will direct Gen. Canby to convene the legislature and inaugurate Walker.

☞ The N. Y. Times has a letter from its own correspondent in Augusta, discussing the negro eligibility question, and counseling that the expelled members be reseated, to take the wind out of Gov. Bullock's sails.

☞ Reading matter on every page.

NEW TRANSPORTATION OF MOLASSES.—The Boston Journal tells of a new method of transporting molasses by sea. A tank is made in the hold of the ship, in and out of which the syrup is pumped in bulk. The brig Novelty, brought a cargo in this way, of 84,075 gallons. Her tank holds 125,000 gallons, dischargeable in five hours, or three hogsheads per minute. It saves cooperage, leakage, and time in loading and unloading.

Charleston and Atlanta.

We publish to-day, the advertisement of a leading Charleston Merchant, and it has engendered some reflections that we think not altogether unseasonable, in regard to the business connection of our city, and Charleston. Before the war that city did a large business in this section. We raised produce that the Charleston merchants sought avidly, and our production of these commodities is increasing, and must continue to increase at a rapid rate. The capacities of our country are exhaustless. Our new railroads are developing and will develop every foot of area. Many of our merchants were in the habit of purchasing their stocks of goods in Charleston, in preference to New York Baltimore, and other markets.

It strikes us that Mr. Robson's movement is a wise one in the right direction, and that the Charleston merchants would do well to imitate his example, to advertise with us, and re-establish an old and profitable business connection with this section. Nothing will more help to build up Charleston to her former commercial proportions, than the re-establishment as a cheap and reliable wholesale market, and her getting up a heavy grain and flour trade with our people.

Protective Tariff.

Horace Greeley gives his seventh installment against free trade. He hits boldly and powerfully it must be confessed. He is not quite as facetious as in his earlier articles. He gives the following heavy shot of statistics:

So Mr. Samuel Lawrence, writing from Lowell (Dec. 14, 1842,) in reply to my inquiry for specific information as to the effect of the new protective tariff on the price of cotton fabrics, gave the following exhibit of the prices at which Lowell fabrics sold for three months before and three months after the passage of that act:

AVERAGE PRICE OF LOWELL COTTON FABRICS.

	May, June and July, '42.	Sept. Oct. and Nov. do.
Drillings.....	7¼c. per yd.	7 cents per yd.
Shirtings, common,	5½c. per yd.	5 cents per yd.
Shirtings, heavy...	6¼c. per yd.	6¼ cents per yd.
Sheetings, common	6½c. per yd.	6 cents per yd.
Sheetings, wide...	8½c. per yd.	7¾ cents per yd.
Flannels (cotton)..	10c. per yd.	8½ cents per yd.

Here (as in the case of starch, before cited) the American producers of cotton fabrics were not only enabled to sell their products cheaper in the larger and surer market secured to them by protection: they actually did it: doubtless, to their own profit.

He frankly owns that protection will not lower the price of all things immediately; but he contends that in the main, there must be benefit everywhere—that whatever department of industry may be fostered by it, domestic competition must inevitably graduate the price of its product to the profit of the consumers. And if any industry is thus assisted, the very fact that the successful producer makes money inspires a rush of rivalry, that by expanding the productiveness, lowers prices.

TURNER AND SENSATIONAL REPORTERS. It turns out that the reports of Turner's implication in the woman fraudulent currency affair at Augusta and Atlanta, and his arrest, were mere sensational "items."

We regret that a sense of duty compels us to enter our protest against this morbid sensation-mongering of the press. It is disgraceful in the extreme, and brings discredit upon the whole fraternity. Without designating offenses in that regard, we feel as if we could applaud a verdict for a few thousand dollars damages—H. M. Turner vs. a certain newspaper, and the Atlanta Press Agent. Augusta seems to get all the news first, and while we are proud of the enterprise that characterizes the management of the press of that city, we feel confident that a gentle hint to publish facts will give no offense.—Albany News.

☞ Hon. James Savage, a descendent from the famous Anne Hutchison, is the oldest person living who delivered a Fourth of July oration before the Selectmen of Boston. He was the orator in 1811.

Sound Politics.

Politics, to-day, in the South, is a very curious anomaly. It certainly presents some strange features, and to fathom its philosophy and mark its divisions is no easy matter.

Parties have got to be so commingled and even members of the same party are so widely at variance, that the whole broad field of political life is more a confused jumble of conflicting skirmishers in small squads, than a great battle, as it has been heretofore, of two grand armies.

It is true that there is the heavy general demarkation between Radical and Democrat. Yet, opinion is so diverse and many-hued, that the two run into each other by insensible gradations, forming a solid woof, deeply dyed on both edges, but gently toning down to the center, where each is lost in the other.

Trace the panorama from Massachusetts, with its unqualified Radicalism, its easy gorge of the whole African and its hatred of the Democracy, through Virginia, where the sturdiest old Democrats are seen fighting with cavalier gallantry for a carpet-bagger, with full negro enfranchisement thrown in to Kentucky with her sweeping Democratic creed, and Joseph's variegated coat never presented a more motley aspect.

Consider how distinctively antagonistic the extreme views of each party, yet, how the moderate men of both have been crowded upon the same plank by an expediency, whose fallen despotism neither would resist, and the incongruity is absolutely farcical, in the light of abstract straight-out principle.

The Radical theory is one of higher law—the Democratic, of restricted constitutions; the one sails upon capricious pinions, the other steers in a ruddered ship; the one is the momentum of force, the other, the majestic philosophy of chartered right. The one drives to success regardless of means, the other seeks its goal only by the legitimate methods of regulated law.

Opinion was intoxicated by license during the war, and the demoralized public have been in a measure thus prepared for the delirium, the vagaries, and the abuses of Radicalism.

There is another deep reason for this thing. For a number of years, the press has been becoming the power of the world. Pushing aside the orator and the book, it has marched into almost omnipotence. This very supremacy of the press has indicated the rule of mind, the spreading sovereignty of individual opinion among peoples, and this extending sway of opinion has had a tendency to engender a contempt for anything settled, whether in religious creed or political charter.

The thing is going on over the world. In England, the popular clamor, guided by rough John Bright, has clutched from an immemorial aristocracy some of its most revered rights. In France, Napoleon quakes at the exaction of mob threat, and discreetly suggests compromise with the exacting canaille. In China, the clam-like policy of centuries is laid aside, and her teeming millions swarm over the antique barriers to dissolve into the world's civilization. Colonies are fiercely struggling to slip from the maternal grasp. Such startling change, as is everywhere seen, is bewildering to the mind.

But, no country presents greater domestic fermentation than ours. The grave proclivity to fiery, unhampered license is nowhere more resolute and active. It threatens to sweep away every land-mark and safeguard.

It is the policy of Radicalism to propel the powerful innovation. It is the province of the Democracy to check it up, and save us from the rule.

Undoubtedly the former has the power, and it wields it remorselessly. And the very anomalies of our political situation are but the desperate shifts of the weak, to escape destruction at the hands of the ruthlessly strong and cruel. The grim necessities of a choked vitality are producing all these incongruous phases of political life.

Men under stern need are making concessions that they have fought with a sturdy and heroic persistency. Persons, who twelve months ago, planted themselves upon a basis of firm principle, to-day are seen indirectly yielding with a sort of sad despair to tyrannical exactions, which seem to be hopelessly invincible, and opposition to which they drop as pure and fatuitous unprofitableness.

But there is another class, who for a base lucre, drop their antagonism to the irresistible wrong, and with a plastic ease, out-Herod our opponents in their political crusades.

What is the honest Southerner's course under the distressing exigencies? To fight fruitlessly against the irresistible! That were folly! To drop in the current, join the enemy, and play the Judas to conviction? That were vena!! What then? Why, yielding to what we cannot help, avoiding alike puerile antagonism and truckling treason to right, turn our stupendous energies to the achievement of practical prosperity. This once won, and independence is ours.

And while working with toiling industry for individual wealth and public growth, let us not taint our reputations by affiliating in the very act of iniquity with the undeniably wrong. That man or that journal that, in this, our hour of travail, can form alliance with the base, that has no word of condemnation for an administration that has done and is doing injuries to the State, whose silence can be bought with patronage, whose advocacy of what the moral sense of a child would condemn is bartered for pecuniary support, and that is forgetful of the prestige of honored reputation, must not, indeed, wonder if the confidence of the good is withdrawn, and the worthy should shrink from conduct so untrue. It is the weight of such bought support that often sustains a bad official or a corrupt administration, and then such a defection from the right to the wrong is not simply a mere personal treason, but in its effect it is a public injury. And if it is done with attempt to keep up appearances, it is the more insidiously dangerous, and the more to be feared, and avoided, and lashed.

The legitimate fruits of business legitimately enjoyed, are matters of business, but when they are the price of political tergiversation, they smell of the political trade, and create a suspicion of unsound politics in the barterers.

It is not difficult to say what is unsound politics; but it is a matter of delicacy and reflection, in the clashing perplexities of these disjointed times to decide what is sound politics. Any personal venality is unsound; the unbought sacrifice of cherished opinion, and the disinterested submission for the good of the land, to resistless exaction, are not. Violence is always unsound, manly defense of conviction never is.

In fact, amid the harrowing conflict of expediency and principle, amid the disturbing influences of the crisis, amid the bewildering distractions of the situation, we cannot lay down a better rule for political guidance than under solemn conscientiousness to act under the sway of that amor patriæ—that love of country, that history has immortalized, and virtue approved in every age of the world.

FORBIDDEN FRUIT.—A beautiful woman with basilisk eyes, that are radiant and deadly, riding back in a luxurious equipage screened as it were from the vulgar gaze, and fresh and delicious in a marvellously becoming summer toilet, is a study for the philosopher. The great seething mass of humanity, struggling for, feast their eyes upon the visions of loveliness as one looks into a hot-house through barred gates. The jewelry which glows at the flowers and jewels so temptingly displayed for the delectation of those who can only look. These exotics of the flesh are not unlike their delicate prototypes in the conservatories which gladden us only when we can look. It is a grievous thing to look at happiness through another man's eyes," or wish for the violet which grows beyond a precipice. The sweetest fruit, however, does not always hang the highest.

SEWARD IN CALIFORNIA.—He had, in early life, placed before him, as a thing to be studied and attained unto, how to make a speech. He flattered himself that, in times past, he had succeeded in making a few. Now his ambition was the contrary—how not to make a speech.—Chicago Republican.

In which we politely affirm he well succeeded.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

DISTRICT COLUMBIA.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Revenue to-day six hundred and seventy-four thousand dollars.

Few of the many visitors are admitted to the President, who is busy arranging h's business for a two weeks absence.

Supervisor Stanwood telegraphs to arrest Collector Willis, and Deputy Collector Quill, for alleged blindness to illicit distillation.

The President has appointed James H. Foote, Pension Agent at Raleigh, North Carolina.

Admiral Poor succeeds Hoff, who asks to be relieved on account of ill health.

Peabody is sick, but not seriously.

The Turner habeas corpus argument lasted four hours.

Hoar strongly combatted Chase's jurisdiction. At the close of the hearing, Chase said he would inform the counsel when he had digested the arguments.

GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, July 14.—A special dispatch to the Chronicle and Sentinel, dated Macon, July 14, says: Turner was arrested this afternoon, by the United States Treasury agent, on the charge of counterfeiting. The examination was being conducted with closed doors, before the United States Commissioner, Morrill.

PENNSYLVANIA.

HARRISBURG, July 14.—The Committee on Resolutions made their report. The resolutions declared against the exercise of doubtful constitutional powers; that Pennsylvania would never give up self-government; that the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment should go before the people; that the negro should not have the ballot; that finances need reform; that labor reforms should be encouraged; that the whole reconstruction policy tends to destroy republican government and establish tyranny; that our soldiers should not be forgotten; that our sympathies should be given to nations struggling for liberty; and that our system of taxation is burdensome and should be done away with. The report was unanimously accepted.

Hancock's name was received with immense applause. A letter from Gen. Hancock, dated May 21st, positively prohibiting the use of his name, was read. Several declared their determination to vote for him in spite of it.

First ballot, Asa Packer 58; Gen. W. S. Hancock 22; Geo. W. Cass 48; Gen. Wm. McCandless 5. Second ballot, Packer 68; Cass 47; Hancock 19. Packer was declared the nominee.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, July 14.—The proceedings against Deputy Surveyor Keith are in suspense.

Auguste Contourie was arrested, this afternoon, by Marshal Packard, on a warrant from Commissioner Urban, but has been paroled until morning. A warrant has also been issued for the arrest of Contourie's chief clerk.

Collector Casey labors under heavy disadvantages in the prosecution of these cases, on account of the absence of district attorney Morgan, who has gone to Europe, leaving his office in charge of his clerk, just at the time when efficient legal aid is imperatively necessary for the protection of the interests of the Government. It is the universal opinion of United States officers here, that able special counsel should be appointed by the Government for these cases, on account of the large number implicated, the immense amounts involved, the labors attached and determined efforts by the interested parties to defeat the Government officers. Parties connected with the ring have stated their confidence in their ability to triumph, no matter what evidence may be brought against them, having unlimited command of money and influential backers. Judge Durel, of the United States Court, during his absence, has authorized Collector Casey to approve bonds in these cases, but in case of disapproval, the bonds are to be sent to Judge Durel for acceptance or rejection.

Internal Revenue Supervisor, Conklin, leaves to-night for Washington. He state that further aggressive action against revenue defrauders in his department, will shortly be taken, and interesting developments made.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, July 14.—The State Educational Convention, convened at Lexington to-day. Gen. Lee was President, and was re-nominated for President, but declined. The session will last several days.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Seward sailed Sitkaward to-day.

NEBRASKA.

OMAHA, July 14.—Gen. Carr surprised an Indian village. The soldiers killed 32, and captured 17 women and children, and 350 animals.

TEXAS.

GALVESTON, July 14.—To-day cars were sent out from Harrisburg, Texas, with boats to rescue sufferers by the flood in the Colorado valley, who took refuge in the tree-tops in Eagle lake bottom, and have been there two days. Positive information received says the water was two feet over the tops of the telegraph poles on farms on Eagle lake bottom, which are cultivated every year. We have various rumors from Bastrop, but as communication is entirely cut off, none can be credited. It is impossible to arrive at the extent of the loss to the towns along the Colorado till the water falls. It has fallen six feet already. The Brazos is still rising, and it is reported that all the rivers near San Antonio are out of their banks.

FRANCE.

PARIS, July 14.—Nothing heard from the Great Eastern since Thursday.

CUBA.

HAVANA, July 14.—The Columbia has arrived. Weather hot and dry. There is much sickness throughout the Island.

MUTUAL FIRE AND LIFE

Insurance Company,

MACON, GA.

Authorized Capital:::::$500,000!

Certificate of authority issued by the Comptroller General, under Act of March 19, 1869, requiring one hundred thousand dollars capital.

COL. W. J. LAWTON, President. J. C. McBURNEY, Vice Pres't.

R. J. LIGHTFOOT, Secretary.

This Company is now prepared to issue all classes of Policies. In the Life Department it offers more liberal terms than any other company in this country

It asks particular attention to the following prominent features:

1. It is a Home Company—a Southern Company, owned and managed by as able financiers as our State can produce.

2. All its policies are non-forfeiting, and so long as one dollar of premiums or dividends remain in the hands of the Company unearned, so long is the policy kept alive.

3. Its policies are incontestible, except for fraud.

4. Its policies contain no restrictions of either travel or occupation, and world-wide in its fullest sense.

5. As low a rate of premium as a due regard to safety will permit, and will compare with any other Mutual Company.

6. Thirty days grace allowed upon payment of renewal premiums, and the policy held good for that time.

7. One-half the premium remains a permanent loan on the policy, at legal interest, which loan it is confidently expected will be extinguished by dividends.

8. It is a Mutual Company; all the profits equitably divided among its policy holders.

9. Dividends declared annually, upon the contribution plan.

10. Females insured at same rates as males.

Feeling assured that the above features must commend this Company to the favorable consideration of the public, we respectfully ask an investigation of its merits, by those contemplating insurance, satisfied that we offer greater inducements than any other Company now extant.

Able Solicitors and local Agents wanted all over the country. Address,

J. C. McBURNEY, Vice President, Macon, Ga.

HUNNICUTT & BELLINGRATH,

GENERAL AGENTS FOR ATLANTA AND VICINITY.

THIS Rod has successfully superseded all others where it has been introduced. For eight years it has taken the premium over all Rods in State and County Fairs wherever entered. It has received the unqualified endorsement of every man of Science to whom it has been introduced, as the most perfect and cheapest Lightning Rod before the Public. It is unqualifedly endorsed by the highest Scientific authority in the

CITY OF ATLANTA.

A few of its numerous supporters over all kinds and styles of Lightning Rods are: Samuel Harris, of England; Prof. Henry, of Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D. THE DAILY CONSTITUTION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA :::::::: JULY 15.

Supreme Court—Evening Session.

Reported Expressly for The Constitution.

WEDNESDAY, July 14, 1869.

Argument was resumed and concluded in No. 6, Tallapoosa Circuit—Stewart and Colclough vs. Dobbs, Long and Dickson; garnishment from Carroll. Merrills for plaintiff in error. H. Buchanan for defendant in error.

POWERS' CONSUMPTIVE INSTITUTE.—Attention is called to the advertisement of this sterling institution in another column.

GEORGIA MUTUAL FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—Mr. Loud, the Special Agent, makes an important announcement to the citizens of Atlanta. Those wishing insurance will do well to examine the claims of his Company.

ATTENTION! LADIES.—John Thrasher sells, this afternoon, at Barrett's auction room, a number of articles, for the benefit of the building fund of the First Baptist Church. Auction commences at four o'clock.

The auction was postponed until to-day, in consequence of the death of Wm. M. Hill, Esq.

SEVENTEEN BEAUTIFUL LOTS.—Wallace & Fowler sell seventeen beautiful lots on the Macon and Western Railroad this afternoon.

CONVENTION OF SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES.—Yesterday evening the Convention met at 4 P. M.

The Common Law Rules were taken up and many rules adopted, others expunged, and some amended, when the Convention adjourned until 9 o'clock this evening.

AUCTION SALE.—Capt. J. H. Barrett has an extensive sale of Groceries, Furniture, and miscellaneous goods this morning. Read his advertisement, attend the auction, and make good investments.

QUERY.—What is the center of attraction on Washington street, these moonlight nights, to so many young men? Do they go to gaze at fair Luna, or view the beauties of the glen?

TELEGRAPHIC REPORTS.—If the press reports by telegraph were written more legibly, it would be hailed as a blessing by our compositors. A dimly written sheet by gas light, does not improve the eyesight.

ANOTHER GOOD MAN GONE.—We have the painful intelligence to announce this morning, that the beloved pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, the Rev. R. K. Porter, died last evening at 8 o'clock. The loss of this good man, will be severely felt in this community.

ACCOUNTED FOR.—The Grand Jury of Richmond county, solemnly arraign the individual occupying the Gubernatorial office for turning so many convicted felons loose. "A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind." "What is the loss of the State is his gain."

BULLOCK GIVES A PARTY.—Gov. Bullock gives a party to-night to the Judges attending the Convention, at eight o'clock.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was another scwicher. The thermometer stood as follows on the inside of Redwine & Fox's store: 9, 88; 11, 91; 2, 94½; 4, 96; 6, 93.

THE EASIEST METHOD.—The Grand Jury of Richmond county, solemnly assert in their general presentment that, unless the Governor restrains the exercise of the pardoning power, it will be useless to tax the people to support courts and juries, and both will have to be abolished. The easiest method is to abolish the Governor.

HON. WILLIAM GIBSON.—Conspicuous among the Judges attending the Convention now in session, is Hon. William Gibson, of Augusta. Urbane in manners, genial in temperament, and impulsive in disposition; a warm friend and uncompromising foe; vigorous, terse and bold in his utterances, he has all the elements of popularity. We regret that he is a scalawag, for we like to have such a good fellow on the right track. Bill's heart is right—it is only his head that is wrong.

HON. W. SCHLEY.—We were pleased yesterday to meet with Hon. W. Schley, Judge of the Eastern Circuit, a man of rare scholarly attainments, of fine mind, extensive travel, and courtly polish. He is known more immediately as the author of the decision in the case of the negro White, who was elected Clerk of the Superior Court of Chatham county—a decision that is endorsed by the country for the soundness of its doctrines and the great strength of its argument. Judge Schley is one of the few men that adorns any position he may be called to fill.

RAID ON A BEE-TREE.—On Tuesday night Capt. G. Whit. Anderson took up the line of march, at double-quick, for Stone Mountain. Here he was reinforced by a "picked" number of gallant souls, who "rushed to arms eager for the fray." With buoyant hearts, the moved rapidly up the rocky sides of the mountain, and vigorously attacked a hollow chesnut tree. They axed who was within. The inmates cried begone. Honey, they shouted, we know you are thar, and out you must come. Sinking an ax into the root of the tree, to their astonishment, the honey began to flow out. The advancing hosts now charged furiously and soon the trunk of the tree was rifled of about twenty pounds of good rich honey. Throughout the town now the most endearing terms are used at the table, and many a man who received no sweeter appellation than "old beeswax," now hears the invitation "have some, honey."

CURE OF DEAFNESS.—The following very complimentary letter from one of our best citizens to Dr. Foster, of Empire Block, was handed us for publication. It speaks for itself:

ATLANTA, GA., July 14, 1869.

Dr. J. M. Foster, Empire Block—DEAR SIR: Having been relieved by you of a partial deafness of some years' standing, I take pleasure in having you refer to me. I had suffered considerable annoyance from my deafness, besides having noises in the ear, which were particularly disagreeable. A few days ago I was operated upon by you with flattering success. You did not cause me the least pain whatsoever and I can now hear as perfectly as ever.

Tendering you my thanks and gratitude, I am yours truly, JAMES M. BALL.

Dr. Foster may be consulted at his rooms in Empire Block on Whitehall street.

A FINE PASSENGER COACH.—The Georgia Railroad Car Department at Augusta, has turned out in the last three months, one of the finest passenger coaches in the South. It was built throughout from truck-wheel up, at Augusta, and demonstrates beyond cavil, that we can manufacture cars here at the South. The car is beautifully ornamented, and painted, and reflects credit on the Georgia Railroad, and M. S. Frost, the Superintendent of the car works. All honor to the Georgia Road and its officers. Monarchy would be more popular, if every King had as prosperous subjects as the President of the Georgia Railroad.

THE ALMS HOUSE.—According to the report of the Superintendent, there were one hundred and fifteen inmates in the alms house at the last report. Thirty have been discharged, sixteen received and three have died during the last quarter, leaving now there, ninety-eight, of which number the county sent forty and the city fifty-eight. The amount expended for subsistence and clothing was $948.44, and for salaries $250; the pro rata of the city was $663.28; and of the county, $284.16. Five were fever cases treated in the hospital of which only three died. The cases from the city inmates was thirty, and of those from the county, twenty. One of those who died was from the city and two from the county.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—The Atlanta University is nearly ready for the roof; it is three stories above basement, and will be fitted up in a convenient manner, with bath rooms on each floor, the front rooms being arranged for parlors and teachers' rooms, and dormitory. The basement contains a large dining room, kitchen, store room, etc. A sub-basement is constructed for laundry purposes. The building is of stone for the foundation, and brick for the upper walls, with granite dressings around the windows and doors. The dimensions are 42 feet wide, 113 feet in length, and 45 feet to cornice. The whole will cost upwards of $20,000. It is erected under the auspices of the American Missionary Society, with an appropriation from the Freedmen's Bureau at Washington, to aid in the education and training of teachers. It is contemplated, in the course of two or three years, to erect another building similar to this, on the opposite side of the grounds, which will make one building for girls and one for boys; the grounds are sufficiently large, and beautifully located, on the hill at West end of Mitchell street, from which one of the best views in the city can be had of the surrounding country.

The building is to be completed by the 15th of September. Messrs. Reilly & Berry are the brick contractors; Beck, Scofield & Co., carpenters. The designs were prepared in Cincinnati, and are being carried out under the supervision of Mr. W. H. Parkins, architect and superintendent.

We also notice that great improvements are being made in the remodeling of Col. Tarver's residence, on Washington street, from the designs of Mr. Parkins. When completed will present one of the chief attractions in the way of making a new house out of an old one, and will be one of handsomest residences in the city.

At the corner of Marietta and Broad streets, Capt. J. T. Grant, of Athens, and Col. L. P. Grant, propose erecting a three-story brick building, with a basement nine feet deep. The building will be ornamented with terra cotta chimneys and window caps. The first floor will be divided into three stores, eighteen feet wide and one hundred feet deep. The second floor will be divided into twelve rooms, with a wide passage in the center entrance from a flight of stairs in the rear, on Broad street. The roof will be of slate, and the front of iron, the windows being lighted by French plate glass. Between this and the store occupied by Henry Seltzer, will be a one-story building, seven wide on Marietta, and twenty-eight feet wide in the rear, lighted by a sky-light in the roof. The basement of these buildings are rock. The rock masonry has been executed by Mr. Lynch—the balance has not been let out under contract.

On Peachtree street, next to Lovejoy's building, a row of four brick stores, with iron fronts, two stories high, is in process of erection. Each store will have twenty-five feet front on Peachtree and run back one hundred and eleven feet. The roof will be slate. The brick work has been let out to Capt. W. G. Newman. Three of the stores will be under the control of Col. L. P. Grant, and one the property of Willis Chisolm. The buildings will be first-class.

J. N. ROBSON, OF CHARLESTON.—In another column will be found the card of Mr. J. N. Robson, an old and reliable merchant of Charleston, South Carolina, who before the war used to trade extensively in this section. Mr. Robson bears a high character in his own city; he comes to us with the very best of recommendations; and he is personally known to some of our business men. We take pleasure in recommending him unconditionally to our citizens as a gentleman of means, integrity, and business skill and reputation.

CAUTION—Poisonous Toilet Powder.—The use of powders, blooms, etc., which cannot help, but ruins the skin eventually, is fast becoming superseded by that new and exquisite beautifier, Milk of Violets, which is sold by all druggists and fancy goods dealers. Especially for summer use, it is delightful. General Agent, V. W. Brinckerhoff, N. Y.

A QUEER QUESTION.

Is Episcopal Ritualism Insanity.

Judge Cordozo, of the Supreme Court, has to decide a queer question in a few days. It being no less than whether ritualism, as practiced in some of the Episcopal Churches, is an act of insanity or not. Rev. Mr. Allen, of Waterloo, says it is, and because he saw his mother go to church every morning, and rise at the mention of the sacred name, he had her declared a lunatic, and confined in the Bloomingdale Asylum. She now prays for her release on the ground that her son being Low Church, considered her ritualistic tendencies insane, and also because he feared that she would leave all her property to the new sisterhood recently established by the High Church. The case excites a great deal of interest and the Judge's decision is looked for with considerable anxiety. PINK.

[N. Y. Cor. Charleston Courier.

A RAIL ROAD KING.—The building of the line between here and Augusta is certainly due to the shrewd management of Colonel Wm. Johnson, to whom the South Carolina Railroad owes a debt of eternal hatred. He is undoubtedly the "Railroad King" of the South, being President of three roads, and by combining the resources of each, he has made them mutually assist each other in carrying on what they otherwise would not have been able to have done. Particularly is this the case with the Columbia and Augusta Railroad, which has been built with an empty treasury, relying almost entirely on the credit of the Charlotte Road. We say he is "king" because he has shown more sagacity and energy by doing more with less means; his power is more absolute and more untrammelled by Directors, and his more miles of track under his authority than any railroad officer we know of the South. In financial tact he has not been outwitted even in Wall-street, and the Directors of the road have such implicit confidence in him that he is allowed to do whatever he desires to. The length of the consolidated roads is 195 miles, and with that one known as the Atlantic Tennessee and Ohio Railroad, which was completed to Statesville, N. C., but was partially torn up during the war, the total length is 330 miles. Colonel Johnson works very hard, and appears to be almost ubiquitous; is seldom at home, and always traveling about.—Columbia Cor. Charleston Courier.

☞ We have watched the course of so many distressed, emaciated and forlorn dyspeptics, of worn-out and prostrated females, who have taken a new lease of life, and gradually received vigor, strength, health, and the power of social pleasure from the effects of PLANTATION BITTERS, that we are not surprised at the Testimonials daily received. It is a pleasure to do good in the world, how full must be the measure of the Proprietors of these celebrated Bitters.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.—If you would be beautiful, use Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

It gives a pure Blooming Complexion and restores youthful beauty.

Its effects are gradual, natural and perfect.

It removes Redness, Blotches and Pimples, cures Tan, Sunburn and Freckles, and makes a Lady of thirty, appear but twenty.

The Magnolia Balm makes the Skin Smooth and Pearly; the Eye Bright and Clear; the Cheek glow with the Bloom of Youth, and imparts a fresh manly appearance to the Gentleman. No Lady need complain of her Complexion when 75 cents will purchase this delightful article.

Atlanta as a Market.

Atlanta offers many superior inducements as a commercial center. We have merchants who deal extensively in Grain, Produce, Dry Goods, Leather, Furniture, Confectionery, Crockery, Hats, Agricultural Implements, Drugs and Medicines, Jewelry, Liquors and Tobacco—in fact, everything needed by the public. The Jobbing trade is developing rapidly here, because our wholesale merchants sell their goods at figures but a fraction above Northern markets. Our merchants are as liberal, reliable, and upright in their daily transactions, as any in the land.

Tobacco Market.

We have not only three large factories in successful operation, but many extensive dealers in Tobacco. The demand continues fair at unchanged quotations.

Grain Market.

We find many orders for wheat waiting to be filled. Arrivals to-day sold at 1 30 for inferior red, 1 40 for good red, 1 50 for prime white, sacks returned. These are better prices than in any other market near us, and should indicate to farmers very plainly the point for them to bring their wheat. Our buyers now classify qualities of wheat very rigidly. The supply of corn is yet nominal and far short of orders. Sales readily made at 1 25 at the depot. Oats, none arriving; would sell readily at 75a80c.

Bacon Market.

Clear sides 19½; shoulders 15a15½; plain hams 18; sugar cured hams 20a21½. Lard, tierce 20a21½; keg 22.

Flour Market.

Our mills are full of orders for flour, as the delivery of wheat is so slow; new family 9 00 per barrel; superfine 6.00 No change in quotations of old.

Grocery Market.

Sugar—A standard, 17c; B, 16¾ to 17c; extra C, 16 1-2c; yellow C, 16c. Rio Coffee, 22 to 25 1-2c. Molasses—barrels, 55c; tierces 53c; New Orleans syrup reboiled, 90c. Candles—Adamantine, 17 1-2 to 18c; tallow, 12 to 15c. Soap, 7 to 9c. Rice, 9 to 9 1-2c, tierce. Corn meal, 1 35, and in great demand.

Lime and Cement.

Our market has become a large one in these articles; indeed, a common center. Cherokee Lime, 60c per bushel; Chewackla, 55c. Hydraulic Cement 5 00 per barrel. Plaster of Paris 6 00 per barrel.

Country Produce.

The continued drouth has so seriously affected the gardens that but very few vegetables are being brought in for sale. The demand is excellent, and prices rule high. Eggs, 10 to 12c per dozen. Butter in good demand at 30 to 35c per pound. Chickens, half grown, 25c. The market is plentifully supplied with melons, and prices rule a little lower.

Confectioneries.

Our confectioners are manufacturing a superior article of candy, which they are offering at figures as low as the Baltimore market.

Dry Goods Market.

We have no change to report in quotations to-day. The demand continues pretty fair.

Local Freights.

Yesterday, there were received, at the State depot, two car loads of corn, seven of coal, five of lumber, two of flour, five of wheat and nine of mixed freight.

L. H. BRADFIELD'S COLUMN.

DR. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR, Woman's Best Friend

THIS valuable Medicine is prepared for WOMEN exclusively, and is to be used by WOMEN only. It is adapted especially to those cases where the WOMB is disordered, and will cure any irregularity in the "menses," except in such cases as require a surgical operation. As a remedy in every rare, the FEMALE REGULATOR, is of almost universal application. It is a sudden check of the "monthly courses" from COLD, trouble of mind or like cause, it acts like a charm, by RESTORING THE DISORDERED SYSTEM TO ACTION, thus relieving the fever, headache, pain in the small of the back and "lower stomach," flushes of heat about the face, chilly sensations, burning of the palms and soles of the feet, &c. &c. In fact, all symptoms pass away immediately, without injury to the constitution. Females, however, the proper remedy is not applied in time, the disease becomes chronic, and the foundation laid for numberless evils to the constitution of the WOMAN. The next "turn" comes around and there is no "show," or perhaps the "whites" will appear. There will be some uneasiness about the womb, but very little or none of the natural fluid escaping. The complexion becomes sallow, bowels, swollen, a sort of greenish caste about the face, constant dull aching pains in the head, weight in the lower stomach and back, with or without whites, palpitations of the heart, pallor, exhaustion, indigestion, weariness, languor, aching across the loins, loss of appetite, pain in left breast, tightness across the chest, cough and giddiness. If still not cured to a confirmed dropsy will be fully developed—the headache becomes severe, with loss of memory, diminishing sensibility, nick CRACKUP, dyspepsia, no relish for food, loss of flesh, the increased fluttering of the heart SWELLING OF THE FEET, HEAD and body and occasional spitting of blood. The slightest effort causes HURRIED BREATHING, almost SUFFOCATION. The skin is damp and a "doughy feel." This is a sad picture, but it is the condition of thousands of women between the ages of 15 and 45, who are brought to the verge of the grave by ignorance or neglect to take the proper remedy. To all who are afflicted with any of the symptoms above mentioned, in connection with the irregularity of the "monthly sickness," we earnestly say TAKE DR. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR. A few ounces taken, you will at once experience its benefits, and with a little patience you will be fully restored to health.

This remedy has been extensively used for upwards of twenty years by many of the most experienced and successful Physicians of Georgia. We request that Dr. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR is prepared for WOMEN and to be used by Women only.

A trial is all we ask.

ATLANTA, GA., December 29th, 1868.

DR. J. BRADFIELD—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in stating that some time previous to the late war, I used, with the utmost success, on a servant girl, your FEMALE REGULATOR, purchased from Bradfield's Drug Store, West Point Ga. She had been suffering severely from suppressed menstruation, and this Medicine soon restored her to health. She is, to-day, living in Atlanta, sound and well.

I will state, further, that I know of its being used, with equal success, on a servant girl of my brother in law, Professor Rutherford, of Athens, Ga. This woman had, I think, been diseased for six years. She was a house servant, and seemed cured up to the time of "freedom." I do not hesitate to indorse your preparation for the purposes for which you recommend it.

Yours truly, JNO. C. WHITNER.

STATE OF GEORGIA, TROUP COUNTY.

This is to certify that I have examined the recipe of Dr. Joseph Bradfield, of this county, and, as a medical man, pronounce it to be a combination of Medicines of great merit in the treatment of all the diseases of females for which he recommends it. WM. P. BEASLEY, M. D.

This December 31st, 1868.

MOUNTVILLE, 1868.

DR. J. BRADFIELD—DEAR SIR: I have much pleasure in saying I have witnessed the most decided and happy effects of your Female Regulator in the neighborhood. WM. H. FINCHER.

MOUNTVILLE, 1868.

DR. J. BRADFIELD—Dear Sir: I have repeatedly used, in my family, your Female Regulator, and have, in every case, met with complete success. G. L. DAVIS

CONSISTING OF HIS CELEBRATED

LIVER MEDICINE.
Anodyne Pain Kill it.
ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.
AGUE PILLS
—AND—
Dysentery Cordial, Female Tonic,
—AND—
PURIFYING PILLS.

THIS excellent Remedies of O. S. Prophitt, M. D., need no recommendation—their well known power in removing the diseases peculiar to our Southern climate having already established for them an enviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining States. As a majority of persons living in the South are predisposed to disease of the Liver, it is granted by all intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to derangement of the digestive agent of that important organ. Prophitt's Liver Medicine and Anti-Bilious Pills strike directly at the root of the evil. They cure the Liver which, in nine cases out of ten, is the seat of the Complaint, Dyspepsia, Colic, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Constipation, Menstrual Obstructions, etc., so common among our people. Earache, Toothache, Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia and and bodily pains of every kind are relieved like chaff before the wind.

Prophitt's Pain Kill It

If you are suffering from Chronic Diarrhœa in any form, or any other Chronic Disease, use

Prophitt's Liver Medicine,

It is safe and reliable; pure Vegetable, and a slight dose every other day will suit all times. Price, $2 a bottle—33½ per cent. discount by the dozen bottles or more.

If you get Snake bit, use

FEMALE TONIC,
—AND—
PURIFYING PILLS.

The Purifying Pills and Female Tonic are associated together as a full preparation, as you see in the Bills. They have given perfect satisfaction in my practice for the last twenty years, in all cases that they are recommended for. The Pills may be taken in connection with the Liver Medicine, without the Tonic when there is any indication for them, such as shortness of Breath, Swelling of the Feet or Face or a Pale, Weak state of the Blood, or a Fish y state of the Muscles, as prevails Gil ler Fever and Chills and Fever.

The Factory Girl's Song.

BY MRS L. S. GOODWIN.

The spindles whirl, the bobbins fill,
A little maid tends the thread,
Singing a song of somebody,
And somebody's name is Fred.
She sings aloud, for none can hear,
So noisily goes the mill,
Telling her secret to many an ear,
And keeping her secret still.

The din to her has a goodly sound
Of sturdy workers hammer and saw!
And visions arisers of cottage walls—
"Heave! heave! hurrah!"
Building a home for a married pair,
And somebody's name is Fred.
And somebody's wife is a factory girl,
Spinning the slender thread.

O, never she doubts but somebody thinks
Of her as she thinks of him;
Knowing what day their cup of bliss
Will be full to its very brim.
So to and fro, in the aisle she goes,
Light-hearted and light of tread,
Thinking how willingly ever she'll work,
For the man whose name is Fred.

She dots the bobbins, they fill again,
And so on all the day;
Then at sound of the bell the little maid
Skips down the stairs and away.
But whether by day or whether by night,
At work, or asleep in bed,
Her spirit is singing of somebody,
And somebody's name is Fred.

CONVENTION OF SUPREME COURT JUDGES. The Convention met at 9 o'clock, A. M., and after reading the journal, proceeded to take up the 8th rule of Common Law Rules. The word "District" was erased and the word "Circuit" substituted.

Rules 9, 10, 11, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 24, 27, 33, 34, 38, 41, 42, 43, 44, adopted.

Rules 13, 14, 15, 25, 26, 32, 35, 36, 40, 45, 47, 49 expunged.

Rule 12, amended by inserting "as ball in any criminal proceeding."

Rule 16 amended by inserting "in all cases of claims where."

Rule 17 amended by inserting "in cases of claims where the claimant dies."

Rule 23 amended by inserting "the order specifying the terms on which it may be taken and the length of time it may be kept on pain of being considered in contempt."

The first line and a half of Rule 28 expunged and the words "by commission" inserted.

Rule 29 was amended by inserting "ten days, twenty days, thirty days, forty days, and sixty days, unless in the discretion of the Court a longer time shall be allowed."

Rule 30—all expunged except the sentence relative to commissions returned unexecuted.

Rule 31, amended by striking out the words "may be sent and," and "the names of the commissioners written across the seals on the envelope, and the commission must have such direction as will enable the court to know that it was intended for that court and."

Rule 37, amended by expunging the words "including $2 of the attorney's fee. The entry of default upon the Bench Docket shall be sufficient evidence of the judgment."

Rule 39. All expunged except the middle sentence, from "all causes" to "its proceedings."

The first sentence in Rule 46 expunged.

Rule 48 was amended by inserting after Justices of the Peace the words, "and other committing Magistrates," and expunging all after the word "Court."

Judge J. S. Bigbee was granted leave of absence.

The Convention adjourned to 4 o'clock, P. M.

DANA ON PIG-TAIL.

He Groweth Jocund—Goes for Burlinghame for President, in 1876, as the Chinese Choice.

Should the proper steps be taken, we have no doubt that next year will see ship loads of Chinese arriving at every Southern port, and endless columns of the same people moving from the Pacific coast, and debouching from the eastern terminus of the Pacific Railroad across the green plains of the Mississippi Valley. The South will have peace and plenty at last. The cotton fields of Georgia and Alabama, with Celestial laborers in conical hats and flowery gowns among the stalks, will resemble the sunny pictures on tea chests and caddies; while the rice swamps of the Carolinas will furnish interesting living illustrations of the Chinese modes of irrigation so dear to Hogwood's memory in the cuts of Peter Parley's Geography. Mr. Greeley's long cherished dream of growing tea on our Southern hillsides, will doubtless be realized without delay, and the Augusta Cotton Mills, will forthwith begin to turn out silks instead of jeans.

We regard it as a formidable, possibly resistless movement on the Presidency of the United States by His Excellency the Hon. Anson Burlingame, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Imperial Government of China.

We hereby make our claim to be the first to nominate Anson Burlingame for President in 1876. We would go for him in 1872, but we are already partially committed to Schuyler Colfax and John T. Hoffman as candidates for that year.

What a glorious picture opens to the prophetic mind! A mandarin of the highest possible number of buttons in the Presidential chair, with perhaps the learned and venerable Sun-Tajen and Chih-Tajen, only next inferior in buttons, for Secretary of State and Secretary of the Navy respectively. China, if not Asia, will then be annexed, and the Hon. Horace Greeley will go to England as Minister, with a chest of American-grown tea in each pocket of his old white overcoat! The vision cheers, if not inebriates.—N. Y. Sun.

A PREDICTION VERIFIED.—On the night before Vallandigham, then Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, was sent through the lines of the army of the Cumberland, by order of General Burnside,—it was in midsummer of 1863, now six years ago,—he was visited at the quarters assigned him in Murfreesboro, Tenn., by General Wm. S. Rosecranz, then commanding the Department. General Rosecranz, forgetting his dignity, as he occasionally did, entered into a long and, on his part, violent discussion on political subjects. During the conversation Vallandigham, claiming that his position would be justified by the future policy and events of the war, remarked to Rosecranz that in five years the General would think as the exile then thought, and stand where he then stood. It seems that Vallandigham was right as to facts, and very nearly correct as to time. He may not think precisely as Vallandigham thought, but the candidate of the Democracy of Ohio for the Governorship, Rosecranz certainly stands where Vallandigham stood.—N. Y. Times.

GORDON CO., GA., June 28, 1869.
MESSRS. ADAIR & BRO., Atlanta, Ga.—GENTLEMEN: We received yours a few days since, requesting a statement of the merits of the Gullett Gin purchased of you last year. I have to say of this Gin that it is decidedly the best Gin of which we have any knowledge. The workmanship of the machine is very superior, every pair of it being made with great care, and the boxes and shafts being set in a cast iron frame, admitting of no springing or working. It runs with a smoothness and steadity seldom attained in such machines. The improvements of this Gin are: 1st, it takes the dirt and trash out of the cotton. 2d. It, by means of the steel brush wheel, combs out the link, and renders the fibre much longer than the ordinary Gin, or, at least, makes the cotton show a much longer fibre. These two improvements gives cotton ginned on this Gin, we think, fully the advantage of 1¼ cents per pound in value over cotton of the same kind ginned on the ordinary gin; and when the cotton in the seed is very trashy and dirty, or contains a great many hard locks, it may add more to the market value of the lint. We could perceive no difference between the plant of this Gin and the old one we replaced by it of the same number of saws. The Gullett Gin certainly deserves the attention of planters.
Very respectfully,
J. C. & E. GARLINGTON.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR
Medicine for Dyspepsia, Headache Jaundice, Costiveness, Camp Dysentery, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhœa, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Fever, Nervousness, Bilious, Diseases of the Skin, Impurity of the Blood Melancholy or Depression of Spirits.
Most of the ailments here enumerated have their origin in a diseased liver, which is the most prevalent affection in this country, and as in many cases the patient is not within the reach of a physician, it requires that some remedy should be provided that would not in the least impair the constitution, and yet be active and safe. In such is the character of the SIMMONS REGULATOR there can be no doubt, which the testimony of hundreds will establish.
SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.
Pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade is mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when few of them existed, yet examination of the body after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.
It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the foregoing symptoms appear. It is a purely vegetable compound, is not injurious to the most delicate constitutions, and will keep the liver in healthy action if used properly.
Persons living in unhealthy localities may avoid all bilious attacks by taking a dose occasionally to keep the liver in healthy action.
Regulator
For children complaining of colic, headache, or sick stomach a teaspoonful or more will give relief. Children, as well as adults, eat sometimes too much supper, or eat something which does not digest well, producing sour stomach, heart-burn, or restlessness; a good dose will give relief. This applies to persons of all ages.
Many persons, from eating too much, are restless at night, or in day time flagety, wool-gathering, can't understand what they read, can't keep their thoughts on any one subject so as to reason well, or become fretful. One or two tablespoonful will give relief.
To Females.—Take enough Regulator after eating each meal to produce one full action from the bowels every day.
Pregnant ladies will find sure relief from their headache, costiveness, swimming in the head, colic, pain in the stomach, restlessness, etc.

DR. HUNTER
CONTINUES to treat all private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects: Nervousness, bodily weakness, indigestion, constipation, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, fickleness, nocturnal emissions, and finally prostration of the vital powers, can be fully restored to health. Persons afflicted with this, or any other delicate, intricate, or long standing constitutional complaint, should give the Doctor a trial. He never fails.
The Doctor publishes a medical circular that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at his office, or by mail for one stamp. It gives a clear delineation of all the diseases and conditions resulting from the infringement of the moral laws, excesses, indigences, exposures and imprudences in married or single life. Every sentence contains instructions to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others, daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Office No. 163 Third street, between Green and Walnut streets, near the Custom-House, Louisville. Office hours, 9 A. M., to 7 P. M.; Sundays, 10 A. M. to 12 M. june3-d&wly
